FACTORIES IN THE LEIPZIG AREA

1. Rudolf Otto Sack, Leipzig
Builders of agricultural machinery. Lost 540 machines as a result of dismantling operations. These included spindle-presses, lathes and bench lathes, eccentric presses, borers and wood-working machines, as well as motors and transformers. However, reconstruction is taking place and 300 workers are still employed although work is hampered by the lack of materials and machinery.
2. Hasag Metallwerke GmbH, Leipzig
These works employed 10,000 hands during the war on the manufacture of arms and ammunition; they have been completely dismantled.
3. Grohmann & Froesch, Leipzig
4. Meier & Weighelt, Leipzig
These and other smaller firms are engaged in the production of tank components. They are working a 60-hour week and employees are granted no leave.
5. Carl Wünsche, Leipzig-Lindenau
6. E. Winkelmüller & Co. GmbH, Leipzig
Also working a 60-hour week on Russian contracts. It is estimated that each of the two firms, which are completely intact, employs some 500 workers.
7. Fahrzeugaubau Schumann GmbH, Werdau
This railroad-car factory has been completely dismantled.
8. F. Moritz Müller, Leipzig
What are believed to have been exceptionally large stocks of wood have been removed from this firm.
